FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

The Landmark Society Presents Full Moon Flashlight Tours at Stone Tolan House

Flashlights and Campfires and S'mores – Oh My!

ROCHESTER, NY May 13, 2014 — Grab your flashlight and head over to the Stone-Tolan Historic Site at 2370 East Avenue, on July 15 and August 12 at 7 p.m. for the Full Moon Flashlight Tours. No reservations required and the entry fee for a flashlight tour of the over 200 year-old tavern and farm house with popcorn and story sharing is $15.00 for families and $6.00 for individuals. S'mores kits and beverages can be purchased at the door.

You never know what will happen under a full moon! Slip into the past under the veil of twilight in this rare evening tour of the oldest building in Monroe County. Visit the tavern room, kitchen and other spaces, then stroll the grounds and enjoy the kitchen garden, take a look at the late 19th century barn, and play 200 year-old lawn games and toys.

Conclude your evening around the campfire (bring a chair or blanket; benches will be available). Stories and games around the campfire will keep you laughing – even with your mouth full of complimentary campfire popped corn.
